2.2 Self - assessment

General information on self-assessment of PM competences:

The PM competences are divided into three competence areas:

- Perspective competences
- People competences
- Practice competences

For better orientation and easier assessment of the PM competences, the corresponding competence indicators of the respective competence elements are shown. (see Figure 4: Self-assessment - using the competence element "personal communication" as an example).

The following Self-assessment is to be carried out conscientiously and truthfully. It therefore requires some time.

The Self-assessment of your PM competences is to be carried out using the ICB4 six-stage taxonomy (see page 2), whereby stage 6 represents the absolute maximum. To be able to carry out the corresponding Self-assessment it is necessary to familiarise yourself with the description of the corresponding competence elements in the ICB4. Your own competences should be assessed based on these descriptions.

Explanation of the taxonomy

- Stage 1 Knowledge:
Recollection of basic concepts (theories, specific details, terminological knowledge, individual facts), recollection of patterns, processes, methods, categories, criteria, awareness of suitable material, minimum reorganisation

- Stage 2 Comprehension:
Simplest level of understanding, recognising simple connections, showing awareness of what is being discussed, using material (without relating it to other materials, or recognising its broadest sense), translating, using one's own words, interpreting, extrapolating, recognising what has been learned in another context

- Stage 3 Application:
Use and implementation of unidimensional learning content in a new and specific situation, use of project management methods

- Stage 4 Analysis:
Examine and break more complex information into fundamental elements and parts, identification of elements, clarification of organisational principles and (explicit and implicit) structures or hierarchies, recognition of connections, explanation of relationships between the elements, making diagnoses and case studies. This is a question of breaking down the whole (=project) into its parts (plans in the project hand book), in particular observing relationships and effects (interactions) between the individual elements

- Stage 5 Synthesis:
Putting together elements and parts to form a whole, developing, producing a new structure or plan, interweaving experiences, developing hypotheses, networking, optimising the weighing up of pros and cons using an interdisciplinary approach, uniting two or more elements to form a new unit. Compile information together in a different way by combining elements in a new pattern or proposing alternative solutions, by using the optimized project management methods in highly complex situations. Taking into account personal experiences and using methods from other areas

- Stage 6 Evaluation:
Assessing, evaluating, judging a solution, a model, a procedure in terms of its usefulness, functionality, coherence and quality, discovering logical errors and defending opinions. Reviewing projects and guiding others in the area of project management in order to optimise the project management approach. Other project managers can be coached

In the online registration form, please tick the box indicating your assessment of the respective competence element! Only your highest rating per competence element is to be marked.

2.3 Project experience (incl. Complexity Sheet und Executive Summary Report)

Step 1: Please enter here your projects (during the last 8 years) with which you will reach the required person days (PT):

- at least 900 PT as project manager and thereof
- at least 540 PT activity as overall responsible project manager of complex projects, can be counted:

Below are listed 3 examples with project details including your person days (PT) according to your project role(s):

Example 1: Project manager with 280 person days (PT) project management in a recently completed complex project selected for the report.

For this complex project, a Complexitity Sheet and an Executive Summary Report (ESR) must be completed below.

Example 2: Project manager with 170 person days (PT) project management and 50 person days (PT) as project team member with leadership of a sub team in a complex project

For this complex project, a Complexitity Sheet and an Executive Summary Report (ESR) must be completed below.

Example 3: Project manager with 150 person days (PT) project management and 90 person days (PT) as project team member with leadership of a subteam in a non-complex project

For this non-complex project there is NO Complexity Sheet and NO Executive Summary Report (ESR) to be completed.

When saving the specified projects, the specified person days are automatically added up according to your specifications and a corresponding check is performed to ensure that you meet the required person days (PT) for pma/IPMA® Level B.

Step 2: For all complex projects (including the project that you select for the report) with which the at least 540 person days (PT) are achieved as the overall responsible project manager complex projects, Complexity Sheets must be filled in below and the complexity value of at least 25 must be fulfilled in each case (see example 1 and example 2 above).

The following is an example of Example 1 - with a requirement to perform a complexity assessment using a Complexity Sheet - illustrated below:

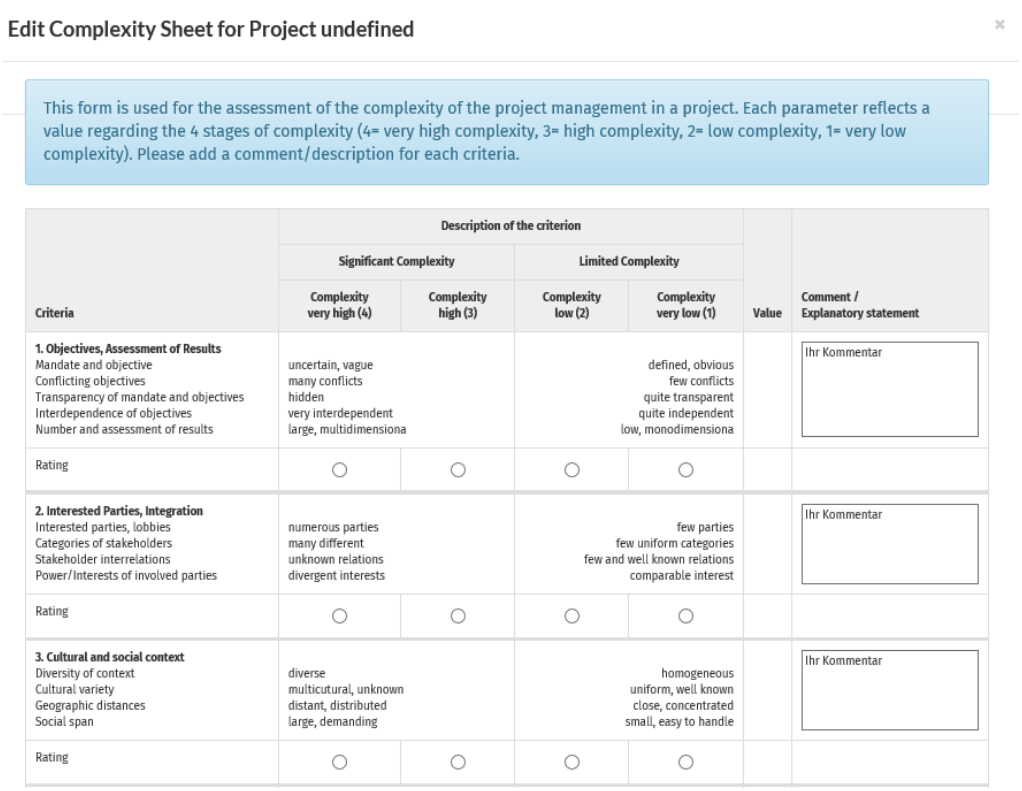
The evaluation of the complexity of the project takes place according to 10 parameters in a respective 4-level scale (4 very high complexity ...to 1 very low complexity).



Edit Complexity Sheet for Project undefined

This form is used for the assessment of the complexity of the project management in a project. Each parameter reflects a value regarding the 4 stages of complexity (4= very high complexity, 3= high complexity, 2= low complexity, 1= very low complexity). Please add a comment/description for each criteria.

Step 3: For all complex projects (including the project that you select for the report), with which the minimum of 540 person days (PT) are achieved as the overall responsible project manager of complex projects, Executive Summary Reports are to be created below.

The aim of the Executive Summary Report (ESR) is to provide the assessors with detailed information on the complex projects they have managed as project managers.

The following is an example of Example 1 - a complex project with a degree of complexity of 26 - and the requirement to prepare an Executive Summary Report (ESR):

Project Nr. : testproject 1

Please note the following warnings for this project:

- You need to fill out an Executive Summary Report (ESR) for this project.
